Dear Janine,

It would be a pleasure to exchange past experiences, (potentially) materials, contacts, and future plans. Together with Agritech entrepreneur William Kwende and other leaders, I have been working on carbon and other resource accounting frameworks, resource flows, governance structures and financing towards balanced, sustainable supply chains and optimising value chains associated with the Sahel and The Great Green Wall for over a decade. Longfinance research and Z Yen work on sustainable finance and investment strategy and tool innovations is largely integral to the Regional Development Projects overseen by the Clarity Coalition Secretariat.

I am currently based in Buenos Aires. I have recently advised The World Bank Argentina, Uruguay, Paraguay lead for the Pro Blue Project for our coasts and inland waterways in the region. There will likely also be some synergies with The African Blue Carbon Initiative, including carbon and forest Key Performance Indicators for investment.

I'll send you some times for a chat next week in a separate mail.

Very best regards

Sarah

Dear Sarah,

Your work and expertise is hugely impressive and most appropriate for the blue carbon and Great Green Wall workstreams we are involved in. I look forward to meeting with you!

Best regards,

Janine
